How Taken

Just add 1 or 2 packets according to taste to 16.9 fluid ounces of water, shake and enjoy. For best results take a couple of sips from a water bottle before adding packet.

Drug Class and Mechanism

Acai Natural Energy Boost combines one of nature's most powerful superfruits, organic acai, with organic grape, apple, pomegranate, and mango to create an all-natural, antioxidant packed energy drink in convenient stick packs designed to go where you go! Acai Natural Energy Boost is so antioxidant rich, by comparison, you would have to eat an entire serving of blueberries to reach an antioxidant value half as high as that of one serving. These amazing SuperFruits are then blended with a balanced Vitamin B blend, all-natural energy compounds from organic green tea, organic Yerba Mate, and organic guarana seed extract and a special dark chocolate extract called Chocomine. Chocomine offers the proven antioxidant and energizing benefits of chocolate without the fat, sugar, or dairy. Rounding out Acai Natural Energy Boost is Chromium. This essential mineral is needed in the body to support normal blood sugar levels. Acai Natural Energy Boost contains more than 80% of your daily value of chromium in one serving. This combined with the naturally sweet Stevia Leaf, provides a sustained energy boost without the typical energy drink, spike & crash.
